

Good Lives Research Network

Working together towards Good Lives for people with learning disabilities

	The event is on Monday 19th June 2023, 1.00-2.30 It is happening on Zoom.
	This event is during Learning Disability Week. It is also Research Week at the Applied Research Collaboration.
	Our host will be Gary Bourlet from Learning Disability England. Gary will tell us about the Good Lives framework. He will talk about how research is important for people with learning disabilities living Good Lives.
	This will also be an opportunity to learn about three research projects.
	You can hear from Tony and Shalim about their co-production project on Recovery Colleges and the Feeling at Home project. There will also be a talk from Daniel and Ben on building ideas for participatory research.
	You can get a ticket on Eventbrite If you need help booking a place, please email Alison Charles: a.c.charles@kent.ac.uk