

ARC KSS Individual Development Awards – April 2021

Title	Applicant Name	Organisation
A feasibility study exploring the acceptability, use and perceived impact of Together Project resources, co-produced to support the delivery of good maternity care for people with learning disabilities.	Dr Anna Cox	University of Surrey
Living Well with HIV: Co-producing pathways for integrating HIV and mental health services in KSS	Dr Marija Pantelic	Brighton and Sussex Medical School, University of Sussex
Optimising person-centred escalation plans and communication across health and social care systems: experiences of patients, families and practitioners to sustain innovations during and after COVID-19 pandemic	Jo Bayly	St Barnabas Hospice (supported through a SLA with Western Sussex NHS Foundation trust)
Use of Technology Integrated Healthcare Management to support people with dementia and delirium following discharge from hospital	Dr Josie Jenkinson	Surrey and Borders Partnership NHS Trust
The H2H Study: Hospital-to-Home digitally enabled exercise pathways to improve older adult's post-operative outcomes during the COVID-19 pandemic.	Dr Luke Hodgson	Western Sussex Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
"Tangiball": Acceptability of a Smart Toy for the Clinical Detection of Sensori-Motor Dysfunction in Children with possible Autism Aged 2-5	Will Farr	Sussex Community NHS Foundation trust
Identifying the Palliative Care Practitioner Best Suited to Implement the Carer Support Needs Assessment Tool (CSNAT)	Cynthia Ngozi Fasola	Hospice in the Weald